

Course #	Course	Description	Grade Level	Prerequisites	Notes
03601	SPANISH LEVEL 1	Students are introduced to the basic structure of the target language within familiar and cultural contexts as they understand and speak the language through guided practice in real-world situations. The students begin to develop communicative skills-listening, speaking, reading, and writing - in the language and explore cultural and social practices of the target culture(s) and their own. The students develop language-learning strategies to maintain a life-long interest in world languages and multiple cultures at home and around the world.	9-12
03602	SPANISH LEVEL 2	Students broaden their foundation of the target language within familiar and cultural contexts as they understand and speak the language through guided practice in real-world situations. The students keep developing communicative skills - listening, speaking, reading, and writing – in the language to explore cultural and social practices of the target culture(s) and their own. The students continue to develop language learning strategies to maintain a life-long interest in world languages and multiple cultures at home and around the world.

SPAN 1000/SPAN 1100	MCTC Beginning Spanish 1	This course provides an introduction to the language and cultures of Spain and Latin America. This course parallels beginning Spanish courses offered at other liberal arts institutions. You will develop basic listening, speaking, reading, and writing skills necessary to communicating about self, family and daily life, as well as basic survival needs. You will also explore cultural aspects of the Spanish-speaking world.
